

SARAH CLANTON

Singer-cellist-songwriter Sarah Clanton's acoustic pop folk meets speakeasy sound is a celebration of the unexpected. She can strum, bow, pick and tap her way through heartbreak & hope with songs that grab you by the collar and refuse to let go.

Clanton relocated to Nashville from Greenville, South Carolina in 2014, and since then has kept busy delivering her part-concert-part-comedy-routine countrywide, Clanton is known for transforming larger shows into the same intimate environment that has come to be expected from her smaller ones.
